IN THE LOBBY

HOTEL GUEST: Is this your calculator?

TOURIST: Oh, thank you. I always do that.

HOTEL GUEST: Be careful with your things around here.

TOURIST: You're right. Thank you.

HOTEL GUEST: Is it your first time here in Boston?

TOURIST: Yes, it is, and it's such a beautiful city.

HOTEL GUEST: How long are you going to stay here?

TOURIST: For just a few days, long enough to see the museums and the monuments. Do you work here?

HOTEL GUEST: Oh, no. I'm a guest too, but I come to Boston a lot. The fall is a good time to be here.

TOURIST: Really?

HOTEL GUEST: Yeah, the weather is nice. Not like the winter. It's really cold in the winter.

TOURIST: It is nice today. Do you ever go to Washington D.C.? I'm going to be there in the spring.

HOTEL GUEST: I love Washington in the spring. It's beautiful. That's the season when it's famous for its cherry trees. Oops, I have a meeting in five minutes. Bye.

TOURIST: Thanks for the information. And for my calculator.
