

Take a look at these sentences:

Peter is never home at this time.
verb to be

Are they usually at the health club in the afternoon?
verb to be

I am not always at the store in the morning.
verb to be

ALWAYS USUALLY
GENERALLY
SOMETIMES NEVER

used after the verb to be.

Here's another example:

