MAN 1: I'm thinking about taking a week off so that Margaret and I can go to Key West.

MAN 2: Sounds terrific. Are you going to fly?

MAN 1: Yeah, into Miami, and then we'll rent a car.

MAN 2: Gee, isn't that going to be expensive?

MAN 1: No, not really. The airline has a great price on flights to Florida right now. And my neighbor works at a car rental agency. He says that we can get a daily rate on a 2-door compact in Miami for around forty dollars. That's forty dollars a day with unlimited free mileage. Of course, that's before we buy insurance for theft and collision damage.

MAN 2: Well, the insurance policy shouldn't be too expensive. If you go, how long will you stay in Key West?

MAN 1: Oh, I don't know. Maybe three or four days.
