

DRILL PRACTICE

Model:

*Listen: Look! A bus has just overturned on the highway!
(car — stopped)
Look! A car has just stopped on the highway!*

Now you:

*Listen: Look! A bus has just overturned on the highway!
(police car — stopped) (taxi — overturned) (truck — spilled its cargo)
(station wagon — overturned) (tractor trailer — jackknifed)*

Now let's do a different kind of drill.

1. The Clarks are getting ready to go camping.

Models:

*Listen: Have you packed the food and the drinks?
Answer: Well, I have packed the food, but not the drinks.*

*Listen: Have you packed the tent and the lantern?
Answer: Well, I have packed the tent, but not the lantern.*

Now listen, answer and check.

- a. Have you packed the sleeping bags and the tent?
- b. Have you packed the cooler and the grill?
- c. Have you packed the first-aid kit and the towels?
- d. Have you packed the insect repellent and the soap?
- e. Have you packed the lantern and the flashlight?
