OVERWORKED

WIFE:
You're gaining weight.

HUSBAND:
Yeah, I'm up to 212 pounds. I guess I need to cut out the sweets. And I'm really tired.

WIFE:
You do look exhausted. You've worked until 10 p.m. every night this week. And it shows.

HUSBAND:
Well, tomorrow's Saturday, so I'll be able to get some rest.

WIFE:
No, tomorrow you have to drive me up to Lakewood.

SON:
Gee, Dad. Mom sure does know how to cheer you up.

At Sea World® Melissa found out
some birds, like penguins, can't fly, but dolphins can.

We believe the more you know about animals, the more you preserve the species. Melissa loved the sea lions, the whales, the walruses and the seals.
