TOO MUCH TV

HUSBAND:
May I please have the remote control?

WIFE:
No. You always turn up the volume too high.

HUSBAND:
That's because you always turn down the volume too low. I can't hear a thing!

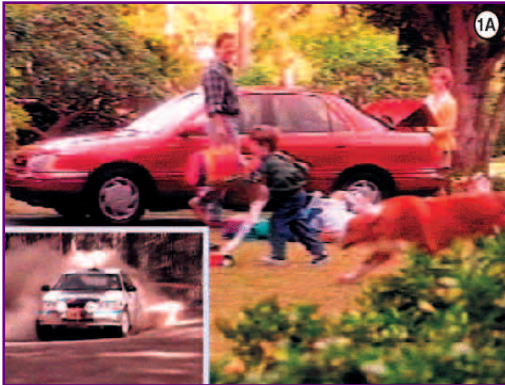

WIFE:
Look, maybe we should lay off the TV for a while. Let's spend the day outside.

HUSBAND:
You're right.

HYUNDAI

VOICE-OVER:
Imagine a sensible family sedan
that is tough enough to win a 4-day,
2,000-mile endurance race.

VOICE-OVER:
This Elantra has been over the river and through the woods to Grandma's house many times. So has this one.

VOICE-OVER:
The Elantra by Hyundai. Cars that make sense.
