PRACTICING PHRASAL VERBS

In one of the situations, we saw a boy who tried to fix the plumbing in the kitchen and caused a bigger problem because he didn't know what he was doing. That boy is always trying to deal with things he doesn't understand.

Let's take a look at him again:

He's always playing around with things he doesn't understand.

Remember this:

To play around with something is to deal with it in a casual, careless way.

Here are more examples with play around with.

Stop playing around with this wrench! You don't know how to use it anyway.

Who's been playing around with my computer?

You shouldn't play around with the TV. You might get in trouble.
