

THE KITTEN

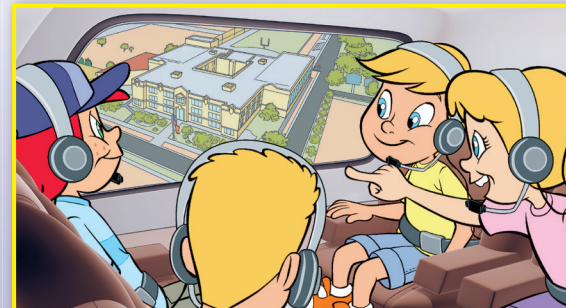

Narrator: Mr. Robinson

Mr. Robinson: Let's get in, kids.

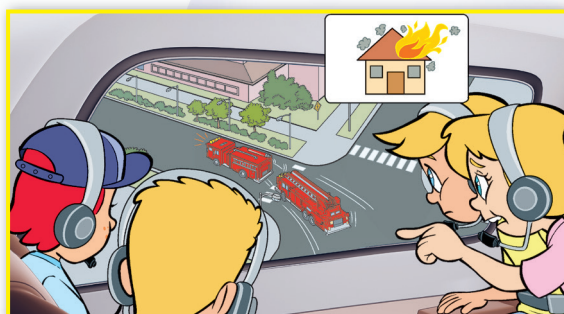

Daniel: That's the stadium.

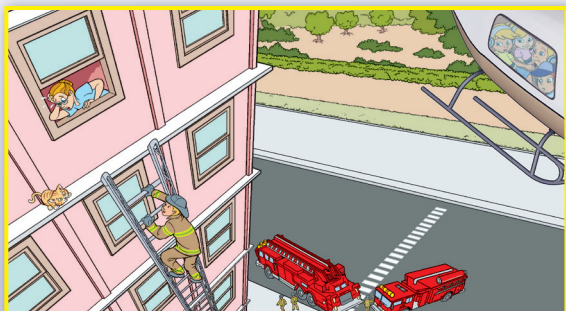

Jean: That school is beautiful.

Daniel: Wow! The fire station is so big . . .

Jean: Look, guys. Is it a fire?

Daniel: No, it's just a kitten.

5. J.: Look, guys. Is it a fire?

Wow!

What's happening down there?

Are there fire trucks speeding down the streets?

Do you think there is a fire in the neighborhood?

That's what Jean wants to know too.

Listen to Jean saying, Look, guys. Is it a fire?

Listen.

(P3X: Look, guys. Is it a fire?)

What is Jean saying?

How do we say fire in English?

(I the fire in the balloon.)

Is this called a fire?

What's this called?

Pretend you thought there was a fire on your street because you saw fire trucks there. What would you say to your friends in English?

Pretend you're Jean. Model Jean in the dialogue.

(IRP)

If you saw fire trucks on the street when leaving school, what would you say to your friends in English?

Can you guess where the fire is?

Let's see.
