

AT THE CHANS' HOUSE

Mrs. Chan: Melissa! What are you girls doing?

Melissa: We're listening to music in my room, Mom!

Mrs. Chan: OK!

Melissa: I love to listen to music and this band is awesome!
What kind of music do you like?

Charlotte: Oh, I don't know. I love all kinds.

AT THE WOODS' HOUSE

Sam: Do you have any new DVDs?

Otis: Yeah. I have the Broken Boys new DVD.
The Broken Boys are my favorite band.
Their guitarist is great! Listen.

Sam: Hmm. This song is pretty weird, Otis.

Otis: Well, this first song is weird. But the second song is very cool.
And I like the third, the fourth, the fifth, the sixth. . .

Sam: OK, OK. So all the other songs are cool too.

Otis: Yeah!

CHORES

The McCann children all have chores to do at home.

Vincent McCann is 17. On Saturdays, it's Vincent's task to help his father clean the backyard and mow the lawn in front of the house. That's no problem for Vincent because he likes to work in the yard.

Kim McCann is 15, and her sister Tammy is 12. The two girls help in the kitchen. On Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, Kim helps her mother with the preparations for dinner. On Tuesdays and Thursdays, Tammy helps. Sometimes, when Mrs. McCann has to work late, Kim cooks dinner too.

The kids clean their bedrooms on Saturdays. The girls' bedroom is usually neat, but Vincent's bedroom is always a mess and the girls often help Vincent clean it.

The only one who doesn't have any chores to do is Samson, the family dog. Samson just eats and sleeps.
