

In a situation in this lesson, some friends—Barry, Luke, and Megan—are at a school dance. At the dance, they see two friends performing with their band. The band plays several great songs, including Dance it Off and Yes You! Here are the lyrics of these songs for your enjoyment. You can listen to the songs too.

Dance it Off<sup>1</sup> (Emmanuel Gilligan/Arthur Gilligan)

I wanted to take her hand and to dance
But I was afraid she would not understand
I wanted to take her hand and to dance
Dance!

Slipping from view<sup>2</sup> into the night
Darkness closing in on me
You came out of the shadows<sup>3</sup> into sight
And a chance of hope came suddenly
Help me, I'm falling

I wanted to take her hand and to dance
But I was afraid she would not understand
I wanted to take her hand and to dance
Dance!

You try to dance it off!

But I see there's something different in your eyes
Yeah, I want to know, are you there for me?
Help me, I'm falling
I wanted to take her hand and to dance
But I was afraid she would not understand
I wanted to take her hand and to dance
Dance!

You came out of the shadows into sight
Yeah, I want to know, are you there for me?
Help me, I'm falling
Help me, I'm falling
Help me, I'm falling
Help me, I'm falling
This beat's going to break and I'm taking a chance
I wanted to take her hand and to dance

<sup>1</sup> dance it off – (expression) to forget about someone by dancing
