

2. rain

- Oh, no. The poor kids.
- I don't think Daniel and Jean were expecting this.
- Daniel and Jean are running under that awning so they don't get wet.
- Under the awning, they'll be more or less protected from the rain.
- Listen to how we say rain in English. Listen.
- P3X: rain
- How do we say rain in English?
- IRP
- Rain is good.
- Plants and trees need rain to grow, and rain fills rivers and lakes.
- But when we're not expecting it, rain can cause problems.
- Now Daniel and Jean have to get out from under the awning.
- After all, the awning isn't like a house which has walls and protects people completely from rain and wind.
- A little wind would blow the rain under the awning, and our friends would get wet.
- How are Daniel and Jean going to get out from under the awning without getting wet?
- Let's see.
