

THE OAKBRIDGE POST

The annual fall picnic for Elm Elementary School was Saturday, but in the opinion of 90 percent of the students, it was awful.

The place, a ranch located an hour from Miami, was beautiful, but the weather was much too hot, and there were tons of mosquitoes.

“I’m covered with bites,” says third grader Audrey Lamb.

The picnic was planned to last 4 hours, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., but by 11 a.m., lots of students were already leaving the ranch.

AT HOME

DORIS: Harry, there’s a sale at Spencer Carpets. I think we should go there and take a look.

HARRY: Why? Do we need a new carpet?

DORIS: We do, for the kids’ room. I don’t like to see them playing on the floor without a carpet on it.

HARRY: OK. When do you want to go?

DORIS: How about tonight after dinner? Look. They’re open from Monday through Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

HARRY: All right.

* * *

DORIS: Are you done?

HARRY: Yep. Dinner was great, honey.

DORIS: Do you want dessert? I think we still have some of yesterday’s rice pudding.

HARRY: No, I don’t think so. Hey, why don’t we go have an apple pie at Alladin’s on the way to Spencer Carpets.

DORIS: Good idea.
