

A BAD FLIGHT

Raymond: Hi! How was the trip back from Honolulu?

Lucy: Not so good. I went on Highway Airlines. They are the worst. I'm not flying with them anymore.

Raymond: I've never had any problems with them. What happened?

Lucy: They changed the departure time of my flight, so I almost missed it.

Raymond: Well, you should have checked the time.

Lucy: There's more. I was one of the last to board the plane, so by the time I got to my seat, there wasn't anywhere for me to store my carry-on bag.

Raymond: Didn't it fit under the seat in front of you?

Lucy: Yes, but I wanted to keep my purse there. I asked an attendant for help and she told me she would have to check the bag at the gate for me.

Raymond: Well, that happens sometimes.

Lucy: Wait, there's more. After the plane landed, I went to the baggage claim area to look for my bag. I even had my bag claim check in my hand, ready to get it and go home.

Raymond: And?

Lucy: They lost my bag! It's probably somewhere far away right now, like Japan. I told them that they either had to find my bag or that I'd never fly with them again. And it was such a nice blue duffel bag.

Raymond: Mistakes like that happen. Don't worry, I'm sure they'll find it.

Lucy: I hope so. By the way, I brought you a present but it's in the bag.

Raymond: What? I can't believe they lost my present! That airline is terrible!
