

Have you ever had visitors who lost track of time and made their visit a little too long? Take a look at how Hagar and his wife deal with this problem in the cartoon below. Notice that Hagar's wife uses the verb to let followed by the infinitive without to.

Reprinted with special permission of King Features Syndicate, Inc.

*nonsense — foolish talk, ideas, etc.

**to fix — to prepare something, especially food.